SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

The workmen are busy engaged getting out stone for the foundation of the new building for the girls' dormitory of Turner Normal College. Work on laying the foundation will commence in a few days. The building committee meets this week for the purpose of letting the contract for the brick and wood work of the building. Mrs. J. A. Jones went down to Nashville last week on a business trip. She is to remain several days. The grand rally at Woodfork Chapel A. M. E. Church last Sunday was a success. The sum of $140.89 was collected by the close of the meeting Sunday night. Rev. G. R. Norman, the pastor, seemed highly lifted up at the result. Dr. J. A. Jones preached at the A. M. E. Church for the rally Sunday morning, and Rev. Raleigh A. Scott, of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, preached at 3 o'clock. Rev. R. A. Scott's Academy of Music gave another musical concert last Monday night at the Auditorium. A large number of white citizens were present. They outnumbered the colored about 2 to 1. The school consists of persons of all ages, ranging from children, eight years old to men and women, whose ages range from 25 to 65. Hon. W. H. Gosling acted as master of ceremonies at the concert. Dr. Parris, the new dentist in town, is growing more and more popular, and is making a fine record in his profession. The County Teachers' Institute closes this week after a very successful two weeks' session. President W. J. Hale, of the State Normal School, was in town last week, and delivered a fine lecture at the A. M. E. Church. Many of the best citizens of the town, as well as the majority of the county teachers, were present. Music was furnished for the occasion by a specially selected musical club. The announcement of two colored fairs holding at the same date in September, is creating some considerable stir among the people. Many counter opinions are expressed as to the advisability of doing such a thing.

CULLEOKA NOTES.

Sunday was quite a still day here. Most everybody went to Round Hill to the rally, which was quite a success. A soul-stirring sermon was preached by Rev. Caskwell. A sumptuous dinner was spread. Mrs. Amanda Harris is quite ill at this writing. Misses Ella M. Hunt, Birdie E. Hunt, Mattie B. and Hattie E. Huggins are in Columbia attending the Institute. Mr. Frank Moore, of Indianapolis, was here last week visiting his niece, Mrs. Lillian Abernathy, and other relatives and friends. Hope Rebecca Lodge H. H. of R. went to Columbia Monday morning to officiate in the burial of Sister Silvia Hickama, formerly of this place. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. John Henderson and Rev. Smith at the First Baptist Church. Mr. Nathan Guster is here with his sister, Mrs. Drusiller Perry. He is reported quite ill.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Miss Altamere Roberts, of Palm Beach, Fla., is visiting Miss Willie Davis. Misses Willie Davis and Joanna McAdams have returned from Nashville, where they have been attending school at Fisk. Miss Felicia Baker, of New Orleans, La., is visiting Mrs. L. H. McAdams. Mrs. J. A. Jones has returned. Mrs. M. D. Key entertained Monday in honor of Miss Altamere Roberts and Miss Felicia Baker. The Bedford County Teachers' Institute closed Friday after having a very successful session. Mrs. Nancy Campbell, who has been very ill, is improving. Mrs. L. H. McAdams has returned from Nashville. Messrs. Hampton Cowan and Lee Whiteside left last week for Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Mattie Griffy is some better. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dennis have returned from Nashville. Mr. I. J. Davis left Friday for East Brooks. The rally at the A. M. E. Church last Sunday was a great success. $140.90 was raised. There were six captains appointed to raise this money. Captain No. 2, Mrs. Mary L.

Orr, led. She reported $32.25. Mrs. Ada Jennings, Captain No. 4, reported $30.35. Miss Maggie D. Key, of Church street, entertained the Ladies' Club Thursday. Mr. Thomas Washington is reported some better. Mrs. Willie B. Mitchell, Gibson, lately of Nashville, is visiting home folks on Wartrace avenue. We are glad to have Mrs. Gibson with us again. Mr. Samuel Davis, of Cross Roads, is real sick at his home. Mrs. Stella Whitman is improving. Mr. Will Whitesides was visiting on Church street Thursday afternoon. The members of the A. M. E. Church are preparing to have a great church picnic at Turner Normal campus, July 4th. Messrs. Boyd Sims and Trails were visiting Misses Willie Davis and A. Roberts Sunday.

DAYTON NOTES.

Mrs. Sadie Shockley, of Whitwell, Tenn., is visiting Mrs. Lizzie Martin this week. She also visited Mrs. Arcene Toolus, of College Hill while here. Mr. John Martin left for Anderson, Ala., and other cities of the South on business this week. Mrs. W. F. Roberts, of Florence street, who has been visiting in Clinton and Knoxville, Tenn., returned a few days ago. The Presbyterian Church of Hill City, Tenn., gave a rally last Sunday. They realized at the 3 o'clock services, $12.25. Rev. Triggs, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion Church, preached. Mrs. John Martin has been visiting in Whitwell, Tenn., returned last Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Sadie Shockley. There will be a big rally at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church next Sunday. Mrs. Bulley Gallaher is visiting in Chattanooga this week. Mr. W. M. McDonald, of Chattanooga, was in our city last Sunday. Mr. Fred Rodday, accompanied Mrs. Shockley to College Hill Sunday. Mr. John Swofford and wife, of College Hill, were at the rally on Hill City last Sunday. Miss Senia Broyles, of Morgantown, is still on the sick list. Mr. J. J. Jolley is on the sick list this week. Mr. Henry Stephens, who was bitten by a snake, is better.

DICKSON NOTES.

Rev. A. A. W. Hill, of Louisville, Ky., is here conducting a revival at the A. M. E. Church. The Dickson County Institute was in session here last week. Quite a number of visiting teachers were present. The picnic given by the Sunday-school of the M. E. Church was indeed an enjoyable one. Rev. J. H. Thompson, of Clinton, is visiting here. Rev. W. H. C. Stokes, of Clarksville, pastor of the Second Baptist Church here, was present and conducted his usual Sunday services. Mrs. Essie Francis, of Indianapolis, Ind., spent Sunday here, and left for Centerville to visit her mother. They began work on the Dickson Pike last week, which is to extend about eight miles from Dickson to Charlotte. Mrs. Mary Holmes, who has been here for several weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pope, left Sunday for her home in Hillsboro. The picnic at the Hendrick school Friday and Saturday was quite a success. Rev. J. M. Ewell, the pastor of the A. M. E. Church at Charlotte, visited here last week. Miss Virgie Dickson and her mother, Mrs. Love Dickson, were pleasant visitors here last week. Mr. Herbert Childress spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Hannah Childress. Mrs. Laurena Overton and Mrs. Susie Sing Sing, of Charlotte, were pleasant visitors last week. Mr. Jeff Cathey and wife are visiting his mother, Mrs. Lue Cathey. A large and appreciative audience was present at Bowman Chapel M. E. Church to witness the children's day exercises. Everything was carried out to the letter, and everybody present enjoyed themselves. Mrs. R. Ross, Blanch Ward and Mrs. Edith Deshayser deserve much credit for the preparation of these children for the rendition of the program. Dickson County Colored Institute convened at Wayman Academy June 16th to 16th. There was a full attendance and several counties represented. Thursday afternoon was set aside for memorial services in memory of our deceased teacher, Mrs. Ella Robertson, of Charlotte, Tenn., who departed this life August 29, 1911. Papers were read on her life by Mrs. Edith Deshayser and A. C. Grimes. Several of her favorite songs were sung. Several resolutions were made.

CLIFTON NOTES.

Rev. A. T. Cooper went to the Bend Sunday to hold children's day exercises. Rev. Warner Bodie was here Sunday and preached at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Children's day was celebrated at the Baptist Church. The choir sang delightfully. Mrs. Elizabeth Bogan performed at the organ. Talks were made by the following gentlemen: Mr. N. C. Jackson, Rev. W. J. Young and Hassell. A collection of $2.50 was raised. Miss Luanna Jobe, Beatrice Almora Churchwell, Rest Churchwell, Jessa Maherry and Miss Erba Poynter took a trip to Mrs. Bell Chapel and Mrs. Nancy Jobe's. They report a nice trip over the river. Mr. Wm. Roberson took a trip to Savannah Sunday to hear the annual sermon of the Sir Knights and Daughters. About fifteen of twenty went on his gasoline launch. Rev. Isaac Churchwell left Saturday for Parson to preach the annual sermon for the Sir Knights and Daughters.

MACON NOTES.

There was a large congregation at Macon Baptist Church on last Sunday. Rev. A. J. Brown, pastor, was present. He also had with him Rev. J. Hayslett, of Memphis. He preached a very interesting sermon. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tarpley spent the evening with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fisher. W. L. Lewis and wife were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gantt Gaither were there also. They were highly entertained by them. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mosby were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adkins on last Sunday evening after services, and spent a pleasant time.

CUMBERLAND FURNACE NOTES.

Mrs. Lucinda Hawkins and daughter, Vennie, have returned from a month's stay in Winchester. Mr. Charles England's sister, Ella, who has been visiting him, has returned to her home. The M. E. Sunday-school is still progressing. Miss Bessie Travis, of Nashville, who has been visiting Miss Estella Brown, returned to her home Monday evening. Rev. Pettus, pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, preached an interesting sermon Sunday morning. Rev. J. A. Stanfield preached Sunday night for Rev. Pettus, on account of his being ill. Mrs. R. E. Armstrong and the Misses Christina Tidwell and Isabella Dickson have returned from Dickson, where they have been to attend the teachers' institute. Children's day was observed in Promise Land Sunday night and many of the young ladies of Cumberland Furnace went out to participate in their exercises. Mrs. Clara Harvie, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Meder Bell Davis, has returned to her home in Clarksville.

MADISON STATION NOTES.

A grand rally was given by the members of the A. M. E. Church at Dry Creek last Sunday, and was a successful one. Dr. J. T. Gilmore, the pastor, and his people had things well arranged. Dr. J. Q. Johnson, presiding elder of the North Nashville District, preached at 11 a. m. An old-fashion basket dinner was spread at 1:30 p. m. to the heart's delight of all present. At 3 p. m. Rev. Gray, of the Baptist Church of this city, preached a splendid sermon. At 8 p. m. the pastor filed the pulpit. Mr. and Mrs. Buckhanna Blackmore are smiling over their week-old baby girl. Miss Kittie and Miss Florence Peddix, of Briarville, attended the grand rally at Dry Creek Sunday. Mr. W. Gray is ill. Miss Rachel Lewis and Miss Mary Lannon were the guests of Miss Marcella Bates Sunday. Mrs. Sueon Anderson is still sick. Mr. Lee Bates, Jr., left for Louisville, Ky., Saturday night. The society sermon will be preached at Dry Creek Sunday at 2 p. m. Mr. Willie Franklin is not so well. The people of this section are doing well religiously and financially.

PIKEVILLE NOTES.

Miss Clea Hutcheson and Lola Hutcheson are visiting relatives in Chattanooga this week. Mrs. Florence Cook and children, Mrs. Elen Robinson and Mrs. Rosa Woodley were the guests of Mrs. C. F. Springs Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Mallissa Roddy is visiting her mother and father in Chattanooga this week. Mrs. C. F. Springs was hostess at a charming party Saturday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served. Quite a number of guests were present. Mrs. Hallie Roddy was the guest of Mrs. Kittie Hutcheson Friday. Miss Amanda Roberson and Ophelia Roberson, two very popular young ladies of Pikeville, are visiting in Chattanooga this week. All of Pikeville is on a frolic. Quite a number of Pikeville people enjoyed the beautiful scenes and pleasures of Chattanooga this week. Rev. George Bates, of Lexington, Ky., preached to a large congregation Sunday evening. While the Pikeville notes are not so full as they have been for several weeks, it is not lacking in social interest. Several charming affairs are being given each week.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

The trustees of Allens Chapel A. M. E. Church have beautified their church by having stone steps built at the front entrance. This has been so long needed, and adds to the safety of the people going in and coming out as well as to the beauty of the church. Their rally will continue. The rally at Keys Chapel last Sunday was a success. Rev. Burch's people always come when he calls them. Mrs. Edith Hoover is on the sick list, also Mrs. Mary Johns, Mrs. Cassie Phillips and Mr. Felix Wood-
